TORRES CRISPS It was back in 1969 when Manuel and Angeles Torres started to sell their artisan crisps from a small food truck on the outskirts of Barcelona. More than 50 years later, the family company continues to thrive, supplying their hand cooked crisps around the world. Authentic flavours, stylish branding and great taste enable them to stand out from the mainstream crisp brands. Voted the no.1 snack brand by independent retailers in the Fine Food Digest.
